[redacted] stated that prior to Wilson's international notoriety, he often traveled in Europe; however, his last trip to Malta resulted in his arrest and confinement and interrogation for ten days. Apparently, the Malta Government felt that Wilson was a Libyan agent. Wilson was finally released; however, he was put onto a flight to London because at that time British authorities also wanted him. Wilson, upon his arrival at Heathrow Airport in London, successfully eluded British Customs Agents, leased a private plane, and flew back to Libya. [redacted] stated that as far as he knows, that plane is still in Libya, and Wilson rarely, if ever, leaves the country. (S)

On April 23, 1980, Federal grand jury (FGJ), District of Columbia, returned a ten-count indictment. The indictment charged Wilson, Terpil, and Brower with various substantive offenses and with a general conspiracy count wherein the stated object of the conspiracy was to "supply covertly and for a profit the Government of Libya with personnel, explosives, explosive material, and other goods necessary to make explosive devices and to teach others how to make explosive devices in a terrorist training project."

Specifically, Wilson and Terpil are charged with: (1) acting as agents of the foreign Government of Libya without prior notification to the Department of State (18 U.S.C. 951); (2) transporting explosives on commercial aircraft (Lufthansa) in foreign commerce to Libya which (a) were intended to be used for terrorist purposes (18 U.S.C. 844 (d)), (b) were hazardous explosives that were unlawful to transport on commercial aircraft (e.g., TNT and C-4 plastic explosives) (49 U.S.C. 1809(b) and (c) were military explosives shipped in violation of the Arms Export Control Act of 1976 (i.e., they were on the U.S. Munitions List and the defendants did not get State Department approval for exporting them (22 U.S.C. 2778 (c)); (3) conspiring to violate the above explosives statutes (18 U.S.C. 371); and (4) soliciting and conspiring to murder Umar Abdullah Muhayshi, a political foe of Col. Mu'ammarr Qadhafi. Brower was charged in three explosives counts, the general conspiracy count, and in two counts of false declarations to a grand jury investigating the case.

On December 15, 1980, Brower pled guilty to violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 371 (Conspiracy). On February 23, 1981, Brower was sentenced to five years and a $5,000 fine. Brower was ordered to serve four months to be followed by three years probation.

Based primarily on information furnished by Jerome Brower subsequent to April, 1980, indictment modification necessary to add fourth subject (Douglas Schlachter, Sr.), and to address additional explosive shipments to Libya. During August, 1981, FGJ, District of Columbia returned superseding indictment charging Wilson, Terpil, and Schlachter with violation of following Statutes: 18 U.S.C. Section 371 (Conspiracy) and 844 (D) (Transport Explosives in Foreign Commerce with Intent to Use Unlawfully); 22 U.S.C. Section 2778 (C) Arms Export Control Act of 1976; and 49 U.S.C. Section 1809 (B) (Unlawfully Transport Hazardous Materials in Foreign Commerce). In addition, Wilson and Terpil charged with violation of following Statutes: 18 U.S.C. Section 951 (Acting as an agent of a Foreign Government Without Notice) and 22 D.C. Code, Sections 2401, 105, 105(A) and 107 (Conspiracy and Solicitation to Commit Murder).
